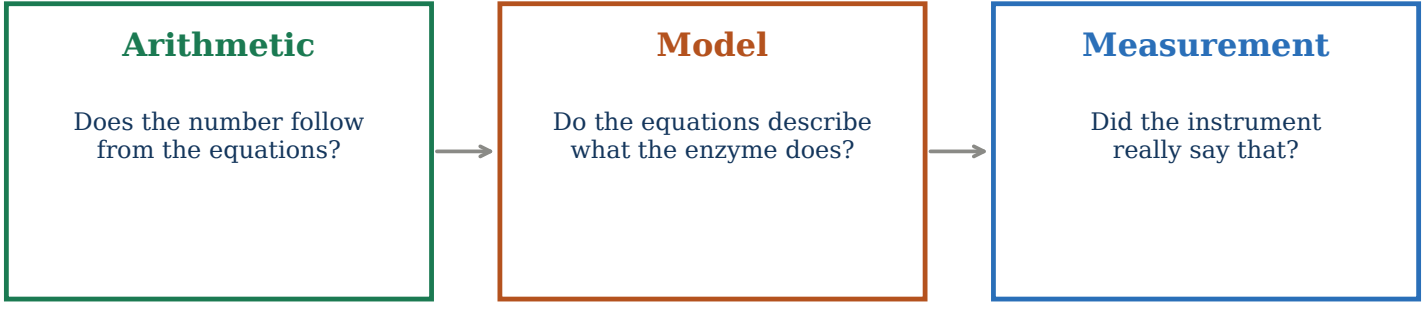
A claim must survive all three. They fail independently.



The retracted POLE mechanism passed the left box and the right box, and failed the middle one.